consequence.

A banquet was served at 8:30 o'clock, after which chairs were pushed back and an informal program of toasts was enjoyed. The evening's program concluded with music, games and various social diversions. The hall was nicely decorated for the occasion in fall leaves, pumpkins etc, and presented a very pretty appearance.

For Coughs and Colds

Nearly all other Cough Cures are constipating, especially those containing opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels.
Contains no opiates.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup

CONTAINS HONEY AND TAR

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

SAVED FIVE FOR HIS FINE

Had Money Hidden in Sock

M'BRIDE DRUNK AGAIN

But His Large Roll Had Disappeared.

Marion People are Once Again Warned not to Burn Leaves on Pavements.

When Robert McBride was arrested five days ago on a drunkennes charge he had $82.75 on his person. When arrested again Friday night by Officer Isenberger he was dead broke with the exceptions of a five dollar bill which he had thoughtfully hidden in the heel of his sock, placing it in reserve to pay his fine in case he was arrested.

McBride is the most interesting character that has appeared in the mayor's court for many a day. He is a strapping big fellow, tall, muscular and weighs about 250 pounds.
When a rich relative died some few years ago he fell heir to a small fortune. He owns considerable real estate in the southern part of the county and for a "plain drunk" is a most extraordinary personage.

McBride disclosed in the mayor's court this morning that every month he draws $100 from his fortune and then he has a good time until it is spent. When arrested scarcely a week ago he had just started to blow in his monthly allowance and the police were astonished to find so much money on an intoxicated man.

When McBride left the mayor's office this morning he was "dead broke" and he remarked to an officer that he was glad of it. "I'm not going to draw any money next month," said he as he bid the mayor good day.

The people residing on paved streets persist in burning leaves on the paving and the police are experiencing a great deal of trouble in trying to stop the practice. The heat from burning leaves will practically ruin either asphalt or brick pavement and the people must be impressed with the fact that it is to their interest as well as the city's to discontinue such a custom.

The Missing Link.

Some years ago remains of an ap-like creature possessing unusual human resemblances were discovered in Java, and the animal was named pithecanthropus. Professor Haeckel and some others accepted this as representing an ancestral human form closely allied to the ape. Now a special expedition, under the combined auspices of the Academy of Sciences of Berlin and the Dutch East Indies government, is being organized to make a thorough exploration of Java in search of additional specimens of pithecanthropus. The geological formation in which the original discovery was made is widely extended among the mountains of that island.—Youth's Companion.

A very important meeting of the Practically every club member was present and a highly interesting ses-

The early afternoon hours were very important one and will be copal parish house next Friday evening. Rev. Mapes will give an address to the club members.

of the city, delightfully entertained a number of Marion friends at her

Canton, O., Oct. 26.—The state board of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs yesterday chose Lima as the place of meeting next October.

Resolutions were adopted by the federation, endorsing a bill, which is to be brought before the state legislature, giving women the privilege of voting at local option elections. They oppose the reduction of the age limit from 18 to 16 years at which women can give consent and permitting boys between 14 and 16 years old to work until 10 p. m., under any conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hane entertained the Florida club, composed of Marion people who visited Florida together a few years ago, with a dinner, at their East Church street home. After dinner, the evening was spent socially.

Mr. and Mrs. Hane's guests were,
Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kling, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McMurray, Mr. and Mrs.
W. G. Harding, Dr. and Mrs. C. E.
Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. A. E.
Cheney.

Mrs. W. B. Spaulding, of North State street, pleasantly entertained the Ideal Embroidery club and several guests yesterday afternoon.
The time was passed with embroidery work and a three course lunch. con was served by the hostess. The guests were Mrs. M. Waddell, Mrs.
Earl Waddell and Miss Ruth Waddell.

Mrs. Harlan S. Simpson of Walnut street, will next entertain the club.

The Twigs were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. May Culbertson, of East Center street. In a pleasant season at bridge Mrs. M. A. Turney won the prize. An excellent lunch was served by the hostess. The club guests were Mrs. A. H. Kling and Mrs.
H. H. Stone.

Mrs. M. A. Turney of Delaware avenue will next entertain the club.

The Ladies' Sewing circle of the Evangelical Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. Mary Weiser, of John street, yesterday afternoon. The afternoon hours were pleasantly passed at sewing and quilting.

were concluding features.

CLUBMEN VISIT LOCAL FACTORIES

Trip Proves Very Profitable and Interesting.

Plans Made to Visit Every Plant in Marion—Banquet and Smoker Enjoyed.

The social committee of the Commercial club and about seventy-five members, left the club house shortly after two o'clock yesterday afternoon and visited the Marion and Fairbanks steam shovel shops, accepting an invitation extended a short time ago.

The Fairbanks works were visited first. The officials of the company showed the clubmen through the various departments of the works and explained everything of interest in connection with them.

Afterward the Marion Steam Shovel plant was visited and the same courtesies were extended by the officers of that company. The clubmen found much that was interesting and of a profitable nature and the tour of the shops was voted an excellent idea.

At 3:30 o'clock the party returned to the club and enjoyed a supper and during the evening a smoker was in order.

In the near future the social committee will take another party to visit the Huber shops and the Silk Mills and later every shop in the city will be visited.

The social committee of the club is composed of F. R. Salter, chairman, B. P. Sweeney, Daniel Evans and George B. Christian.
